Walking with people in Addiction

Tuesday 12th Nov.
Wednesday 13th Nov.
7:30-9:30 on Zoom

Main Speaker - Dr. Rachel Turner sharing about the medical, physical and social reality of addiction.

Other speakers covering; first hand experience of an addict, living with an addict and a pastoral perspective.

Dr Rachel Turner is a GP specialising in addictions, working for community drug and alcohol services in Hampshire. She is a Christian with a wide experience of various denominations.

Christmas cards made by Mia Callingham-Woods will be available from the front hall for a voluntary donation which will go towards the work of Amor Europe.

See page 2 for details about the LIGHT PARTY this year...

The evenings are for anyone in the church with 3 main aims:

- To take away fear of addiction, and of supporting someone in it.
- To educate - understanding the roots and signs
- To teach churches who are not professionals, how to pastorally walk with people in addiction or in recovery

Please use the link below to book. It's free but requires booking to know how many to expect on the Zoom calls each evening.
